1. Aims

The aims of this policy and our anti-bullying strategies are:

- To prevent occurrences of bullying at NGT multi academy schools.
- To ensure that all stakeholders understand what bullying is and how it is dealt with.
- To maintain the ethos of each school and its mission statement.
- To create a positive and safe learning environment for all.
- To develop individual's self-esteem and respect for others.
- To have a zero tolerance of incidents of bullying.
- To deal with bullying by tailoring a personalised package of pupil support and intervention; to include, what/how appropriate sanctions are applied.
- To ensure incidents of bullying are reported by specific categories and appropriate education is put in place in response to these.

2. Definition and Explanation

Bullying may be defined as deliberately hurtful behaviour, usually repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those bullied to protect themselves. It is unwanted and involves a real or perceived power balance. Both pupils who are bullied and who bully others may have serious, lasting problems. It can take many forms, but the main types are:

- Physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, theft.)
- Verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, threats, name-calling, spreading rumours, attacking size, hair colour, gender, sexual orientation.)
- Emotional (e.g. isolating an individual from the activities and social acceptance of their peer group on purpose.)
- Cyberbullying (including sexting.)

Cyber Bullying is the use of technology (social networking, messaging, text messages, e-mail, chat rooms etc.) to harass threaten or intimidate someone for the same reasons as stated above. It can take many forms such as:

- Abusive or threatening texts, emails or messages.
- Posting abusive comments on social media sites.
- Sharing humiliating videos or photos of someone else.
- Stealing someone's online identity.
- Spreading rumours online.
- Trolling – sending someone menacing or upsetting messages through social networks, chatrooms or games.
- Developing hate sites about another person.
- Prank calls or messages.
- Group bullying or exclusion online.
- Anonymous messaging.
- Encouraging a young person to self-harm.
- Pressuring children to send sexual messages or engaging in sexual conversations.

2.1 Peer on Peer Abuse

Bullying will not be dismissed as 'banter' or 'part of growing up' and staff are aware that there is no clear boundary between incidents that should be regarded as abusive and incidents that are more properly dealt with as bullying or sexual experimentation. This is a matter for professional judgement.

If one child or young person causes harm to another, this should not necessarily be dealt with as abuse: bullying, fighting and harassment between children are not generally seen as child protection issues. However, it may be appropriate to regard a young person's behaviour as abusive if:

- There is a large difference in power (for example age, size, ability, development) between the young people concerned.
- The perpetrator has repeatedly tried to harm one or more other children.
- There are concerns about the intention of the alleged perpetrator.

If the evidence suggests that there was an intention to cause severe harm to the victim, this should be regarded as abusive whether or not severe harm was actually caused. (See separate policy on Peer on Peer Abuse and related risk assessment documents to support.)

3. Signs and Symptoms

A child may indicate by signs or behaviour that he or she is being bullied. Adults should be aware of these possible signs and that they should investigate if a child:

- Is frightened of walking to or from school
- Changes their usual routine
- Is unwilling to go to school/begins to truant
- Becomes withdrawn anxious, or lacking in confidence
- Starts stammering
- Attempts or threatens suicide or runs away
- Cries themselves to sleep at night or has nightmares
- Feels ill in the morning
- Begins to do poorly in school work
- Has possessions which are damaged or go missing
- Asks for money or starts stealing money
- Has dinner or other monies continually "lost"
- Has unexplained cuts or bruises/injuries
- Becomes aggressive, disruptive or unreasonable
- Is bullying other children or siblings
- Stops eating
- Is frightened to say discuss what is wrong
- Gives improbable excuses for any of the above
- Is afraid to use the internet or mobile phone
- Is nervous & jumpy when a cyber-message is received

These signs could indicate other forms of abuse or issues, but bullying should be considered a possibility and should be investigated.

4. Recording Bullying and Outcomes

All types of bullying incidents will be recorded on each school's CPOMS by staff. Records will be detailed and accurate, showing a clear chronology of all actions taken and when parents have been informed and involved in decisions made. All incidents will be investigated by a member of the SLT and the appropriate support put into place for all parties involved. This includes:

- Counselling (External – Younger Minds/ Internal - HSLW/ELSA, SOC).
- Restorative practice.

- Use of school's PHSE/RSE curriculums/Assemblies/School Council meetings.
- Use of home/school communication books.
- Involvement of external agencies.
- Liaison with parent/carer/social worker.
- In serious cases, suspension or even exclusion will be considered (as a last resort).
- After the incident/incidents have been investigated and dealt with, each case will be monitored to ensure repeated bullying does not take place.

5. Staff Development and Support

The PSHE Leader will attend relevant training on bullying and then disseminate to the staff through staff meetings or INSET training. Support will also be given by the Home School Link Worker. At least an annual review of policies. Online safety training.
